185. Newman, Edward. An Illustrated Natural History of British Moths. With life-size figures from nature of each species, and of the more striking varieties. 1st. Ed. Pub. W. Tweedie. 1869 pp.viii, 486, with b/w. engraved illus. throughout. Large 8vo. Hardback. AEG. Signatures (dated and covering period 1869-1983) of previous owners to ffep. Small closed tear to bottom of title page, small piece of margin missing from last page, o/w. contents fine. More recently rebound in half leather over marbled boards - fine condition. [62641] £50.00
The publication of this book has an interesting history. The work was released in parts then bound as owners saw fit. The first five parts were released by the publisher, Mr. Tweedie, without Edward Newman's knowledge or consent. These 'pirated' parts are distinguishable since they are headed 'Young England'. Some, but not all copies contain the parts from Tweedie's first release and this copy contains 'pirated' parts No.5.

204. Tutt, J.W. Practical Hints for the Field Lepidopterist. Part 1. 1st. Ed. Pub. Elliot Stock. 1901 pp.106 interleaved (as published) and with original front wrapper and adverts. 8vo. Hardback. Bookplate of Neville Chamberlain (1869-1940) to verso of front wrapper with handwritten notes in pencil, which we believe to be his, to an interleaved page, plus several pencil underlinings and a simple correction. Minor foxing at ends with a little marking to margins of last few pages, o/w. contents in fine condition. More recently bound in wine-red textured cloth with gilt lettering to spine, hint of sunning to spine, o/w., fine condition. Charming copy. [62689] £350.00

*Neville Chamberlain was Prime Minister at the outbreak of WWII, from May 1937 until May 1940. However, long before that, he was a keen amateur lepidopterist with a particular interest in the small moths known generally as pugs, and was said to have collected one of the finest series of moths in the country. The paragraph of notes relate to Demas coryli and observations of them in Tongue, Sutherland (or Sutherlandshire as it was written).*

210. Abercrombie, John. The Complete Kitchen Gardener, And, Hot-Bed Forcer; With the thorough practical management of Hot-Houses, Fire-Walls, and Forcing Houses, and the improved modern culture of the Pinery-Stoves, and Pine-Apples, etc. 1st. Ed. Pub. John Stockdale, London. 1789 pp.[xii], 509, [1], 6-page publisher's adverts. 12mo. Minor spotting, o/w. contents in fine condition. More recently rebound in full-calf, with raised bands and gilt lettering to spine in fine condition. Sewn headbands. [51906] £500.00
John Abercrombie's contribution to Horticulture is held in high regard. His intention for this work was to provide a comprehensive treatment of the Kitchen Garden. He felt that there was a significant gap in the then extant literature, which comprised just a piecemeal approach to the subject.
211. Abercrombie, John. The Hot-House Gardener on the General Culture of the Pine-Apple. And methods of forcing early Grapes, Peaches, Nectarines, and other choice fruits in Hot-Houses, Vineries, Fruit-Houses, Hot-Walls, &c. with directions for raising melons and early Strawberries. 1st. Ed. Pub. John Stockdale, London. 1789 pp.xvi, 238 with 4 [of 5] plates plus 2-page publisher's catalogue. Large 8vo. Contents in thor. vg. to nr. fine condition. More recently bound in oat-coloured cloth with gilt lettered label, light marking to spine and extremities o/w. in fine condition. [51892] £300.00
'Among 18th century British nurserymen who became writers on practical gardening, one of the most successful was John Abercrombie.' (Henrey). Over half of this work comprises a detailed, practical, advice on the culture of the Pineapple. The remainder focusses on grapes, peaches, nectarines, melons and strawberries. Abercrombie was an 'outstanding pomologist' (Jansen).
212. Adams, Henry and Arthur. The Genera of Recent Mollusca; Arranged according to their Organization. 1st. Ed. Pub. John van Voorst. 1858 Three volume set with 138 copper-engraved plates, 128 of which feature hand-colouring as published. Large 8vo. Hardback. Ex. Academic lib. the only indications of this being a stamp to each title-page and ffep, plus paper label to spine. Three pages a little clumsily opened, occ. minor spotting, o/w. contents fine. Publisher's blue cloth, gilt lettered to spine, marked in places and a little shelf rubbed to extremities, o/w. thor. vg. Vol. III has benefited from sympathetic relaying of spine. [63124] £395.00
Preferred variant with hand-colouring to the soft tissue parts of the molluscs. Originally issued in Parts, this work has the text-leaf which indicates when each Part was published.
213. Buchanan White M.D., F. (Ed. (et al)). The Scottish Naturalist. A Magazine of Scottish Natural History. 1st. Ed. Perth, William Blackwood et al. 1871-1964 Sixty-nine volume set with maps, illus., and photos. 8vo. Hardback. Any spotting, which is minor, almost all confined to six vols., o/w. contents nr. fine to fine. Neat occ.

annotation to title-pages. All bound in period cloth in thor. vg. to nr. fine condition (minor splash marks to three vols.) apart from six vols., more recently sympathetically rebound and in fine condition. All vols. from 1892 onwards have the charming bookplate of Dougal Graham Andrew (1926-2021), with a copy of his fascinating obituary from Scottish Birds loosely inserted. An excellent run. Scarce. [63161] £1,495.00

A fascinating insight into Scottish natural history. Early contributors included leading lights of the time - John Harvie-Brown, Prof. C.C. Babington, Mordecai, C. Cooke, J.P. Duncan and many others. Published thus - The Scottish Naturalist 1871/2 to 1891; The Annals of Scottish Natural History 1892-1911 and The Scottish Naturalist 1912 to 1964.

214. Butler Foreign Finches in Captivity. 1st. Ed. Pub. L. Reeve & Co. [1894] pp.[6], viii, 332 with 60 fine hand-coloured lithographs by F.W. Frohawk. Large 4to. Hardback. TEG. Very small number of spots to contents, o/w. exceptionally clean and fine. Contemporary three-quarter burgundy morocco over red cloth boards, gilt lettered to spine, in as close to fine condition as one is likely to find. A super copy. [62927] £4,250.00
This was Butler's most important work and involved his favourite subject Cage Birds. Although some of the illustrations are not true finches the book does contain considerable information on their appearance, distribution, song and behaviour in captivity. The illustrations by Frohawk are some of his best and are outstanding.
215. Butler, Arthur G. British Birds with their Nest and Eggs. 1st. Ed. Pub. Brumby and Clarke. [1896-1899] Six volume set. With 24 colour chromolithograph plates of eggs (containing 475 figures) and 318 fine b/w. plates of birds by F.W. Frohawk. 4to. Hardbacks. AEG. Minor amount of spotting, largely confined to tissue-guards of egg plates, o/w. contents fine. Original deluxe publisher's yellow cloth binding with richly gilt decorated spines and gilt decoration to front boards in nr. fine condition, just lightly shelf-rubbed. With matching gilt decorated endpapers. A very pleasing set indeed. Comes with a loosely inserted copper plate engraving of a small bird (probably a warbler) by Lilian Marguerite Medland (1880-1955). [62938] £425.00
Medland illustrated Gregory Mathews' books on Australian birds. She also illustrated for Tom Iredale (her husband) the author of 'Birds of Paradise and Bower Birds' and 'Birds of New Guinea'.
216. Culpeper, Nicholas. The Complete Herbal. To which is now added, upwards of one hundred additional Herbs, with a display of their Medicinal and Occult qualities. New Ed. Pub. Virtue & Co. [1840] pp. frontis., [vi], 398, iv plus 20 hand-coloured plates with 9 images per plate. Collated and complete. With engraved portrait of Culpeper as frontispiece. 4to. Hardback. Very minor amount of spotting indeed, o/w. contents exceptionally clean and fine. Original blind decorated green cloth, gilt lettered spine, showing a little rubbing at extremities o/w. nr. fine. A super copy in original unaltered condition. [62850] £275.00
217. Curtis, John. British Entomology Being illustrations and descriptions of the Genera of Insects found in Great Britain. 1st. Ed. Pub. for the Author, London. 1823-40 Sixteen volumes bound as eight. Royal 8vo. With 770 hand-coloured plates. TEG. One very neat professional repair to blank bottom corner of one plate. Contents exceptionally clean and fine with just very occ. light spotting or off-setting and two minor marks to blank margin of two text leaves. Later green half morocco over marbled boards, gilt lettering and decoration to spines, in nr. fine condition. Prov: With bookplate of bibliophile Andrew Carnegie (1835-1919) the Scottish-American industrialist and philanthropist to the front pastedown of each volume. His motto 'Let there be light' features on his illustrated bookplate. More latterly, from the library of Sir Alexander Stone (1907-1998), the much loved Scottish banker and philanthropist. [62926] £10,250.00
John Curtis was one of the finest insect illustrators of the nineteenth century - probably only Noel Humphries was his equal, and that in talent rather than industry. His sixteen volumes of British Entomology, with their 770 exquisite colour plates, are by any estimation one of the milestones of entomological publishing. Among the many new species of moths and butterflies it introduced were the Black Hairstreak, in 1829, and the Lulworth Skipper, in 1833' (Salmon p.138).
218. Darwin, Charles. The Effects of Cross and Self Fertilisation in the Vegetable Kingdom. 1st. Ed. Pub. Original green cloth in nr. fine condition. A very pleasing copy. Freeman 801. [52999] £950.00
This book is 'the first of the volumes of supporting evidence [for natural selection]', (Freeman). The first edition (Freeman 800) was published on May 15th 1862, selling up to 2,000 copies.
223. Dock, George. The Audubon Folio. 1st. Ed. Pub. Abrams and Heron Books. 1964 Thirty full-colour plates housed in publisher's pictorial card wrap folder. Folio. With commentary volume (text by George Dock). Contents exceptionally clean and in nr. fine to fine condition. Previous owner has protected the folder with a clear, protective cover which could be removed. Comes with the original covering letter from Heron Books (providing further background information to the production) and their bill of sale. [62935] £195.00
A superb production. The plates measure 43cm x 35.5cm which, given their beauty, the joint publisher Heron Books suggests 'makes them eminently suitable for framing'. The commentary volume provides a good level of detail about Audubon; how he worked and his endeavours alongside a fascinating description of each featured bird.
224. Elgood, George S. & Jekyll, Gertrude. Some English Gardens. 1st. Ed. Pub. Longmans, Green & Co. 1904 pp.xii, 130 with 50 fine colour reproductions from plates by Elgood. Small folio. Hardback. TEG. Minor spotting and marking, o/w. contents fine. Original blue cloth binding, lettered in gilt, in vg. plus condition, small marks to front cover, very gently rubbed on extremities. [63009] £250.00
225. Frohawk, F.W. Natural History of British Butterflies. A complete, original, descriptive account of the life history of every species occurring in the British Islands, together with their habits, time of appearance, and localities. 1st. Ed. Pub. Hutchinson. [1914] Two volume set with 58 [of 60] full-page colour plates, a further 5 b/w. plates plus Appendix and list of Subscribers. Crown folio. Some scattered spotting, very largely confined to text, o/w. contents fine. With pencilled note to ffp. of Vol. 1 indicating plates 10 & 11 not bound in. Original blue cloth boards in thor. vg. condition. [63010] £200.00
Frohawk's masterpiece and the first work to provide in illustration, all the stages of development of the butterflies featured.

In this work, Gould first describes the core commitments of classical Darwinism. Next, he examines the critiques that currently challenge this classic Darwinian edifice. Finally he proposes his own system for integrating these classical commitments and contemporary critiques into a new structure of evolutionary thought.

353. Grove, A.T. & Rackham, Oliver. The Nature of Mediterranean Europe. An Ecological History. 1st. Ed. 2nd. Printing Corr. Pub. Yale University Press 2003 pp.384 with colour photos and text figs. 4to. Nr. fine softback. Scarce. [63035] £70.00
First published in 2000, this is a copy of the second printing which featured corrections. Mediterranean Europe – southern Portugal and Spain, France, Italy, the Balkans, Greece, and the Mediterranean islands – is often interpreted as a "Lost Eden," once verdant and fertile, then progressively degraded and desertified by human mismanagement and the ignorance and folly of successive civilizations. In this engaging book, two distinguished scholars challenge this pessimistic view.

George Bolam wrote this book with the intention of it being a step on from his 'Birds of Northumberland and the Eastern Borders' (1912). The 'Catalogue' presents information that came to light from 1912 onwards and endeavours not to regurgitate content from his earlier work. He frequently refers to Abel Chapman's work.
